

SONOMA, OCTOBER 10, 1891.

About Fruit Over Production.

This year we find ourselves with an enormous fruit crop throughout the whole State, a great part of which has to come into competition with one of the few and far-between big crops in the East. Peculiar weather in the spring retards the ripening, and a sudden spell of extremely hot weather soon after brings many varieties in the market at once. According to an Illinois paper, the weather at that time was very cool and unseasonable, materially checking the demand of fruit of any kind. All this, both here and in the East, combined to bring about a badly demoralized market for a short time. But why should this be cause for alarm to any but the pessimistic croaker, who rather glories in this opportunity to make himself heard? We must not expect enormous profits every year; this cannot be in any other business, why should it be expected in fruit growing?

How many men do we find who have invested $3,000 or $4,000 or $10,000 in orchard property, who think they ought to make $1,500 or $2,000 a year from this investment? They must be satisfied with legitimate business profits, and not expect to make a fortune in a few years. As the seasons vary, so must prices fluctuate, and an average margin of profit must be figured on. There is no doubt but that the wider distribution of fruits throughout the States this year will create a demand hitherto unknown, and which next year it may be difficult to supply.

Out of the 65,000,000 Americans, how many have yet tasted our fruits? While we are planting orchards and the pessimist wonders what will be done with the fruit produced ten years hence, do not these 65,000,000 continue to multiply and replenish the earth? What about foreign markets? They have been given no thought as yet beyond the appointment, some months ago, of a committee to report on the matter. I am in receipt of a letter from a gentleman in Belgium, a former grower in California, who says he has to pay 55 cents for a small can of California apricots, and no other in the market. I am in a position to state positively that the English market will take immense quantities of certain of our fruits if their general introduction is managed in the right manner. But why multiply words? We have our birthright—our climate and peculiar geographical position—where, if it does not give us an absolute monopoly in production, gives us an advantage over all other competitors, and the entire monopoly of some of the finer fruits.—Leonard Coates, before the State Horticultural Society.

Serious Danger

Threatens every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent; since the germs of malarial disease are inhaled from the air and are swallowed from the water of such a region. Medical safeguard is absolutely necessary to nullify this danger. As a means of fortifying and acclimating the system so as to be able to resist the malarial poison, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is incomparably the best and the most popular. Irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels encourage malaria; but these are speedily rectified by the bitters. The functions of digestion and secretion are assisted by its use, and a vigorous as well as regular condition of the system promoted by it. Constipation and dyspepsia are thus speedily relieved against the roads of malaria by this matchless preventive, which is also a certain and thorough remedy in the worst cases of intermittent and remittent fevers.

NEW TO-DAY.

Scrofula

Is more especially than any other a hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: Arising from impure and insufficient blood, the disease locates itself in the lymphatics, which are composed of white tissues; there is a period of fetal life when the whole body consists of white tissues, and therefore the unborn child is especially susceptible to this dreadful disease. But there is a potent remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which expels every trace of the disease and gives to the blood the quality and color of health. Get Hood's.

"When my boy was two years old he was attacked and suffered along time with scrofula, sores, the physician at length told us to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, which we did. Two bottles cured him. He is now 10 years old and has not had any sign of scrofula since. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all our friends." Mrs. E. C. CLIFFER, 8 Kidder St., Cleveland, O.

M. Gailhard of Los Guilicos advertises a lost cow in these columns. The animal, which is a dark red in color, branded 26 on left hip, strayed away from his premises on October 2nd. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of the animal.

Assayer Watts of the State Mining Bureau, who recently visited this valley, made an examination of the natural gas well on Capt. H. E. Boyes' place near Sonoma. He pronounced the gas of an excellent quality and expressed the opinion that the supply by boring the well a little deeper would be inexhaustible.

The loss sustained by the burning of the Winkle residence last Friday it now transpires was between $7,000 and $8,000. There was an insurance of $3,000 on the property. In addition to the loss of house and furniture the stone cellar underneath contained a large quantity of coopers' and cabinet wine which also went up in the flames.

Complaints reach this office almost daily of depredations by gnat swarms in the valley without permission of the owners, and tear down fences, help themselves to the fruit and hang right and left regardless of the consequences. The posting of hunting notices has been found to be an excellent remedy against the evil.

It is estimated by a prominent viticulturist of Sonoma valley that the September rains damaged the grape crop in Northern California to such an extent that the wine yield for 1891 will be reduced at least 6,000,000 gallons. In many vineyards in this county the grape crop has been cut down by the late rains, which caused the grapes to rot, at least one-third.

The patrons of the Walmough School district will give a social dance at their school house near this place on Friday evening, Oct. 23. A cordial invitation to the public is extended. The admission will be 50 cents for gentlemen, who will have the privilege of escorting as many ladies to the dance as they desire. A fine time is anticipated. See announcement in another column.

OTTO GATJE.
The Injured Man Still Bleeding—Taken to the German Hospital.

Otto Gatje, who was struck on the nose by Albert Estes nearly two weeks ago, has been bleeding from that organ ever since. The sick man has lost a vast quantity of blood and his death may occur at any minute. He was removed to the German Hospital, San Francisco, last Monday afternoon, and every effort is being made by the attending physicians to stay the hemorrhage by the "plugging" process, which consists in stopping up the nostrils.

Reports from the bedside of the sick man at the hour of going to press late yesterday afternoon, say that the bleeding has stopped and that there is some improvement in his condition.

Albert Estes, who struck the blow that has placed Gatje so near death's door, is still confined in the Santa Rosa jail, awaiting the result of his victim's injuries.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.

Charley Rogers, who came to California in 1833, the victim of an accident.

Charles Rogers died on Sunday, Sept. 24th, at the Polpa Ranch from injuries received the day before by falling from a wagon on Jas. McMackin's place near the Embarcadero. It seems that after having passed through the gate on his way home, he stood talking to one of McMackin's men, and his horses started to walk away. Rogers followed, and climbed into the wagon, which coming in contact with a tree he was thrown out and injured about the head and spine. Dr. Davis was called, but found the injuries of a serious character, and death resulted twenty-four hours later. He was buried on the 25th from the residence of Mrs. J. A. Poppe, a large number of his old friends following his remains to the grave. "Old Charley," as he was familiarly called, was born in Niagara county, New York, on September 23, 1815, and at an early age, filled with a spirit of adventure, went to sea. One of his voyages brought him to California in 1833. He also served in the Mexican war, and was a private in General Taylor's army. He lived in Sonoma Valley many years, and was a well-known and popular figure in our city. For the past ten years he lived on the Polpa Ranch, owned by Mrs. J. A. Poppe.

The first run of the Sonoma Bicycle Club was held last Sunday and was participated in by representatives from the Bay City Wheelmen of San Francisco and the Petaluma and Napa Clubs.

The visiting wheelmen were met at the train by the members of the local club, and after a spin around the Plaza, the residence of the late Gen. M. G. Vallejo was visited, and through the courtesy of the old General's daughter, Mrs. Lola Euphras, the ancient Vallejo family carriage and other family relics were shown the visiting wheelmen. The guests of the Sonoma Club were right royally entertained by Clement J. Schuster, Captain of the Sonoma Club, at his residence, after which a grand banquet was held at the Union Hotel, which had been prepared by that prince of hosts, Mr. A. Zeller.

The Bay City's were represented by President Geo. P. Wetmore, Captain Thos. H. Doane, C. J. Schuster, J. J. Hull, L. G. Hodgkins, Geo. L. Hall, Thos. Waters, Chas. H. Bliss, A. M. Barnes, Chas. E. Rankin, A. J. Story, Chas. Dietle, A. Barnes, W. L. Thompson, G. H. Bell and C. M. Langton. The wheelmen from Petaluma were P. Jos. Steiger, Clarence Winfield, William Newburg, Gus. Hansen, and R. W. Turner, while H. J. Manasse represented the Napa wheelmen. The Sonoma bicyclists who participated were: C. J. Schuster, H. H. Granice, Geo. Breitenbach, Henry Hartin, Fred. Clark, Claude Johnson, Harley Gottenberg, Lathrop Dunn, Geo. Rogers and Charley Cutler.

More Improvements.

Dr. Carl Walliser, who has recently purchased the Bartholme place on Broadway, is having the house enlarged and otherwise improved. As soon as the house is ready for occupancy the Dr., who is at present practicing in this county, will remove to Sonoma and occupy the same as an office and residence.

That Disreputable Legislature.

Senator J. W. Ragsdale of this county, together with nine other Senators of the last Legislature, has been subpoenaed to appear before the San Francisco Grand Jury to give testimony in regard to the alleged Senatorial combine, which had for its purpose the selling of their votes on various propositions and cinch bills which came up before that body for passage.

A VICIOUS STALLION.

Attacks Chas. Crofoot of Glen Ellen and Nearly Kills Him.

Tuesday evening last, in Glen Ellen, the stallion "Time o' Day" attacked his keeper, Chas. Crofoot, and came near killing him, and the injured man may yet die from his wounds. On the evening in question, the horse got out of his stable, which adjoins the hotel kept by Mr. Crofoot, and attacked an animal which was being driven in a cart by a lady. Her cries of alarm immediately brought Mr. Crofoot to the rescue, and with a whip he drove the stallion back into the stable and into his stall, and proceeded to chastise him. The animal became infuriated, and turning upon his keeper, kicked him into insensibility. When Crofoot was prostrate upon the ground, and the stallion was in the act of grabbing him by the head with wide-open jaws, his son providentially appeared upon the scene, and seizing his father by the heels dragged him out of the stall in an unconscious condition. Dr. Vance of this place was immediately telephoned for, and upon arriving at the bedside of the injured man found him very near death's door. He was stiff and cold. An electric battery was applied over his heart and in a short time he was brought to. His injuries consisted mainly of a kick on the right loin, which caused considerable internal hemorrhage. At latest accounts the prospects are favorable for his recovery. It is said that this very same stallion has already nearly killed two or three of his keepers.

THAT HIGH SCHOOL.

An Attempt to Bulldoze San Luis and Enterprise Districts into the Union.

A special High School tax has been declared by the Board of Supervisors in the Sonoma Valley Union High School District of 6 cents on the $100 of valuation for the support of the school. The school districts that have been called upon to pay this tax are the following: Sonoma, Dunbar, Enterprise, Flowery, Glen Ellen, Harvey, Huichica, San Luis and Walmough. It might not come amiss to mention in this connection that two of the above districts, to-wit: San Luis and Enterprise, have been against the High School proposition first, last and all the time. Twice have elections been held in those districts to decide for or against a High School, and on both occasions the proposition has been defeated by large majorities, and in the case of the latter every vote was recorded against it. To override the will of the people of those districts by an attempt to force them into the High School district is outrage on American rights and citizenship, and it is doubtful if the people of those districts will submit to being imposed upon without a struggle in the courts.

The Taxpayers favors a High School in Sonoma conducted on an economical basis, but is opposed to forcing school districts into the union when those districts have emphatically expressed at the polls their desire not to come in.

The Capitol Saloon.

The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of the Capitol Saloon, Glen Ellen, Messrs. Breitenbach & Jordan, proprietors. This popular resort is conducted by the resident partner, Mr. Jordan, who is a polite and affable gentleman and thoroughly understands his business. He has as his assistant Jas. Harney, a young man universally liked in this valley. If these gentlemen cannot command a share of the public patronage, nobody else can. When in Glen Ellen give them a call.

The Tramp Nuisance.

Town and valley have been overrun with tramps the past week, and it is unsafe to be abroad at night. On Sunday night last Clement J. Schuster was hailed by one of the gentry on the bridge near the Methodist Church and commanded to halt. Mr. Schuster had just dismounted from his bicycle and was walking across the structure, and hastily pushing the fellow to one side with his wheel, he mounted the same and made his escape. The tramp's motive was no doubt robbery.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

CITY TRUSTEES.

The Board of City Trustees met in regular session last Wednesday evening, President Poppe in the chair and a full Board present.

After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved Trustee Bulotti of the Street Committee reported that the bridge on Fifth-street West is in a bad condition and needs repairing. The matter was referred to the Street Committee with instructions to examine said bridge and if it needs repairing have the Roadmaster of the Sonoma district put the same in good condition and charge one-half of the expense to the city.

The Cemetery Committee was given further time to report on the Sexton controversy.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

Sonoma Fire Co., cleaning apparatus. $4.85
Lee Bulotti, labor. 5.15
L. Modini, cleaning fire hose. 2.60
G. W. Sparks, salary and services. 16.50
H. H. Granice, printing. 11.50

Total. $40.65

Ordinance No. 42, relating to the removal of the fire apparatus out of the town limits, was read a second time and on motion of Trustee Weyl, seconded by Trustee Bulotti, was passed by the following vote: Ayes—Trustees Bulotti, Litzius, Wegner, Poppe and Weyl. Noes—Nix.

Clerk Breitenbach reported that he had received notice from the County Clerk that the Supervisors have apportioned the length and value of the S. P. & N. P. Railway in Sonoma City for the year 1891, according to the assessment made by the State Board of Equalization. On motion the assessment was placed on the assessment roll.

A communication from A. Dahms, in relation to a mistake made in the survey and description of a portion of his lands situate in the former Pueblo of Sonoma, was placed on file.

A communication was received from the Merchants' Committee of San Francisco informing the Board that on October 17th at 1:30 p. m. a meeting of merchants, producers and manufacturers will be held at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, the object being to consider the present attitude of the Transcontinental Association toward California and her interests and requesting the Board to co-operate with them.

On motion of Trustee Litzius the communication was received, placed on file and Hon. Robert Howe and F. T. Duhning were appointed delegates to represent this section in said convention. The City Clerk was instructed to furnish the above-named gentlemen their proper credentials.

Lewis Adler presented a petition to the Board signed by himself and forty-five others praying that the Board open First-street East, north of Spain street to the railroad depot.

It was moved by Trustee Litzius and seconded by Trustee Weyl that the petition be received and filed, and that a committee of two be appointed to interview Messrs. Aguilon and Schocken, owning property on the line of said closed street, as to their willingness to open the same. It was so ordered and Trustee Litzius and Weyl were appointed such committee with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The Marshal was instructed to notify property-owners and occupants of lots through which the water-course runs east of town to clean the same, and that the Street Committee have all ditches crossing or running along any street properly cleaned.

H. Laux appeared before the Board and gave its members some good sound advice as to the general management of municipal affairs, after which the Board adjourned.

MY LITTLE LOVE.

She's just the daintiest darling
In all the country round;
As merry a little fairy
As ever could be found.

With sunny, laughing eyes,
And cunning, dimpled hands,
She rules all those around her.
All bow to her commands.

Her voice makes music in my ear,
And when she's by my side,
My bosom thrills with ecstasy,
O'erflows with love and pride.

Her smiles are warm as sunshine,
Her heart is true and tender;
She's lovely as an angel,
Heaven bless her and defend her.

I clasp her closely in my arms,
And kiss her curls of gold;
She is my own true little love,
And she's just two years old.
